++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
A dry and bright afternoon, clear skies overnight.

This Evening and Tonight:
Cloud continuing to thin with long clear spells developing, perhaps the odd mist or fog patch developing in river valleys inland where it will turn quite chilly. Staying much warmer near the coasts. Minimum temperature 4 deg C (39 deg F).

Friday:
After a cool bright start to the day cloud will slowly increase through the morning, particularly near the coasts. Largely dry until rain moves northwards overnight. Fresher than of late. Maximum temperature 17 deg C (63 deg F).

Outlook for Saturday to Monday:
Early rain clearing on Saturday leaving a mostly dry but cloudy day. Unsettled on Sunday and Monday with thundery showers, merging at times into longer spells of heavy rain.
